

A

dhindra Ario Wicaksono (Ario) earned his Bachelor of Laws from the University of Indonesia in July 2012 majoring in Economic Law and shortly afterwards came to Lubis, Santosa & Maramis as an intern, before being made as an associate in January 2013. Prior to joining Lubis, Santosa & Maramis, he interned at another prominent corporate law firm in Jakarta, where he was heavily involved in transaction related to capital market particularly involved in a legal due diligence process with regards to initial public offering, as well as corporate related matter.

While studying in University of Indonesia, he actively participated in numerous organizational, seminars, training and events. He was served as an executive of the UI chapter of the Asian Law Students' Association (ALSA LC UI) and was a member of many other organizations such as Student Executive Body and UI Law Faculty Football Club.

In Lubis, Santosa & Maramis, he is a member of the Corporate Commercial Practice Group where he has been intensively involved in a wide range of projects from various sectors such as aviation, mining, construction, retail, general corporate and telecommunication. He also has been involved in litigation matters such as arbitration proceeding at Indonesian National Arbitration Board (BANI) and civil lawsuit.

In addition to his professional activities, he is a dedicated sportsman, with a love of football and basketball. He is a big fan of Liverpool FC.

Ario has passed the Indonesian Bar Exam organized by the Indonesian Bar Association (PERADI). He speaks Bahasa Indonesia and English.