

D

Dinda Raihan graduated with a degree in Law from the University of Indonesia in August 2014 majoring in Civil Law, and shortly afterwards came to Lubis, Santosa & Maramis as an intern, before being made an associate in early 2015. Prior to joining Lubis, Santosa & Maramis, he worked as an intern in another premier law firm in Jakarta. She joined as a member of the Corporate and Commercial Practice Group of Lubis, Santosa & Maramis and assigned various duties, among other things to assist clients in with regard to mergers and acquisitions, aviation, mining, oil and gas, telecommunications. During her in university time, She was active in various committees, organizations, and competitions. She joined Asian Law Students' Association in 2011 and she was chosen as a delegate to represent Asian Law Students' Association from Indonesia for Australian Law Students Association Conference in Australia.

In addition to her professional activities, she enjoys to traveling, yoga as a weekly sports activity. She speaks Bahasa Indonesia and English.