

S

Samuel Bonar C. Sianipar is an Associate at Dispute Resolution Practice Group of Lubis, Santosa & Maramis Law Firm. He graduated from Faculty of Law University of Indonesia (SH) in 2010 and earned his Master degree (MH) from University of Indonesia in 2014. While in law school, he was an avid participant in the National Moot Court Competition. He also played an active role in a variety of other student activities, such as organizing legal discussions, student competitions, and spiritual pursuits. Prior to join Lubis, Santosa & Maramis, he worked for another prominent litigation firm in Jakarta and been heavily involved in numerous litigation cases and corporate-commercial cases. He specializes in civil and commercial litigation, criminal, administrative, arbitration and industrial relations disputes.

He has passed the Indonesian Bar Exam organized by Indonesian Bar Association (Perhimpunan Advokat Indonesia or PERADI).

He speaks Bahasa Indonesia and English.