

Edgar Christian

Written by Judy Tjh

Tuesday, 31 August 2010 16:11 - Last Updated Wednesday, 05 April 2017 10:28

Edgar Christian is an associate in the Dispute Resolution Practice Group of Lubis, Santosa & Maramis Law Firm. Edgar joined Lubis, Santosa & Maramis as an intern in June 2016 and shortly afterwards was promoted to associate in November 2016.

Edgar obtained his law degree in July 2016 where he was acknowledged as one of the best law graduate from Universitas Katolik Parahyangan, Bandung. During his time in law school, Edgar was a member and former President of the Universitas Katolik Parahyangan National Moot Court Community. As a member of national moot court community, Edgar and his fellow colleagues has represented his law school in several national moot court competitions with regard to criminal litigation and commercial dispute resolution proceedings. In 2015 Edgar and his fellow colleagues were acknowledged as champion of the Prof. Soedarto National Moot Court Competition regarding Corruption Matters. In addition to his moot court activity, Edgar has also served as a volunteer at Koperasi Kasih Indonesia, a social business providing financial services for the poor, in which he assisted Koperasi Kasih Indonesia in preparing several loan agreements and its bylaw.

Apart from his activity at Lubis, Santosa & Maramis, Edgar loves to play and listen to music from various genres. His other interests are in horology, leather goods, and clothing.

Edgar speaks Bahasa and English.