

R

Riska Dewi Fadilla graduated from Parahyangan Catholic University in 2018, and shortly afterwards joined Lubis, Santosa & Maramis as an intern, before becoming an associate in early 2019. Prior to joining the firm, she was an intern in the legal corporate department of a reputable company in Indonesia.

She joined the firm as a member of Corporate and Commercial Practice Group and assists both Indonesian and foreign clients. Her legal expertise varies in several areas of law practice, such as Corporate and Commercial, Acquisition, Maritime, Construction and Transportation. In addition, she has also been directly involved in litigation matters such as Immigration, Corruption, and Suspension of Payment Proceedings.

She has passed the Indonesian Bar Exam organized by the Indonesian Bar Association (PERADI) in 2019. She speaks Bahasa Indonesia and English.